read about us...

ASHOKA ELETRICALS an ISO 9001:2015 Certified Co. established in 1981 by the founder Shri Nishi Kant Jain to distribute all kinds of world-class Electrical and Industrial Goods in whole India. It is a leading Trading / manufacturing company in India and has a consistent track record for the last 40 years.

We have tremendous support from our partner companies, customers, employees and all other agencies, to continuously build the organization from an humble beginning to a distributor/Dealer of more than 50 companies.

We are manufacturer of PVC/MS Conduit Pipes and their Accessories by the registered name

Our Vision is “enriching quality of life by ensuring safe, efficient and convenient use of electricity” has been our guiding force for development of new and better products. The culture of innovation and constant change has played a key role in our success.

The mission has now expanded and evolved further to include exciting new products & new markets. It also involves a far greater responsibility to mankind and to our increasingly vulnerable planet.
